Attorney Charged With Jury "Fixing" Will Not Be Tried Until After Farris Hearing.

STONE TO DISQUALIFY HAZELL.

Indicted Prosecuting Attorney Files Motion to Prevent Judge From Sitting in the Disbarment Proceedings.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Jefferson City, Mo., Dec. 3.—It is probable that the trial of Attorney F. E. Lockett of Jefferson City, charged with jury-lamp, will not be called until after the second trial of Senator Frank Farris.

The Lockett case was set for Wednesday of this week, but was postponed on account of a murder case, which occupied the attention of the court all day.

Instead of taking up the Lockett case today, Attorney General Crow stated that he would let it go over until some time next week, as he intends to go to Albany to attend the Ziegler hearing Monday.

Attorney Lockett stated today that he was prepared for trial. He was indicted by the last Grand Jury on a charge of attempting to "fix" members of the Farris jury, which failed to agree several weeks ago. Lockett was engaged by the defense in the Farris case as one of its attorneys. It is presumed that Mr. Crow will have his hands too full to take up the case until the second trial of Senator Farris has been completed.

DISBARMENT PROCEEDINGS.

In the disbarment proceedings of Prosecuting Attorney R. P. Stone, against whom charges were filed by the Grand Jury, a motion was entered today to disqualify Judge Hazell from sitting in the case.

At the time the Grand Jury reported Judge Hazell removed Stone from office. Mr. Stone contends that he should not have been removed from office until he was proved guilty of the charges.

Review of the fact that he has four charges pending against him in the city, that the disbarment proceedings will be heard until the result of the charges has been learned. Judge Hazell did not rule on the application for a change of venue today.

INDIAN BUILDING CONTRACT LET.

Ethnology Structure at World's Fair to Be Completed in Thirty Days.

FOR GOVERNMENT EXHIBITS.

Types of Many Strange People Will Be Shown on the Site of the Old Tesson Home.

A permit was issued yesterday by Director of Works Taylor of the World's Fair for the erection of the Ethnology building. This is the structure in which the Government's live Indian exhibits will be made. Much of the work on it will be done by young men trained in the Indian schools.

It will cost $17,000, exclusive of interior fixtures and furnishings. H. W. Schuler, the contractor, has agreed to have it completed within thirty days. The money to pay for the structure will come out of the $100,000 which the United States Government appropriated for its Indian exhibit in the Anthropology Department.

The location selected for the building is on the hill formerly occupied by the Tesson home, immediately east of the Exposition grounds. Around the structure will be grouped the various outdoor exhibits in Anthropology. Among these exhibits will be the pikas of Alaska, the Ainu tribe of the island of Hokkaido, near Japan; the Tehuelches of Patagonia, the Senoi of Borneo, and the American Indians, including the Crow, the Navaho, the Kiowa, the Iroquois and specimens of several other tribes.

S. M. McCowan, Superintendent of the Government Indian exhibit and honorary Assistant Chief of the Department of Anthropology, will direct the display within the building. The structure will be 38 feet long and 50 feet wide, and will comprise two stories and a basement. On the second floor will be dormitories for the Indians, and on the first floor will be the place where the Indians will be employed. Navajos will make blankets and silverwork; Apaches will make baskets; Pueblo Indians will make bead and pipestone work, and the Chippewas, birch-bark work.

In the schoolrooms will be classes of Indian boys and girls, who will go through the routine of work each day. In the center of the building will be a large auditorium, in which special exhibitions will be given.

FRENCH ART EXHIBIT COMPLETE.

Includes 600 Paintings, Much Sculpture and Many Engravings.

Paris, Dec. 3.—The jury appointed to select specimens of French art for exhibition at St. Louis has completed its work. In the exhibit some of the greatest artists and sculptors will be represented.

Two thousand paintings were submitted, of which only 600 could be taken. On the list of successful artists are such names as Bonnat, Bouguereau, Duran, Fleury, Pissarro, Signac, Simon, Mouton, Constant, Monet and the late Camille Pissarro.

Bouguereau has contributed his well-known "Los Oreos." Duran the "Last Hour of Christ" and portraits, Chartrand, "Cardinal Richelieu," and "Le Docteur de Marie Madeleine" and "La Vestale d'Andromede." Pissarro, "Le Retour du Troupeau" and "Le Bois." Bonnat, some portraits, and Fleury, "Un Oiseau dans la cage" and "La Jeune Maternelle."

The collection of paintings is regarded as probably the best France ever sent abroad. A fine exhibit of engravings and water colors will also be sent. The sculpture exhibit includes, besides Rodin's bronze figure, "Le Penseur," Bartholome's "L'Enfant Mort," Vassallo's "La Comedienne Humaine," Saint-Marceaux's "New Destinies," and "Chevaliers de la mort," and three pieces by Michel, including "La Paysanne" and "La Femme aux Lys."

MAY CALL SPECIAL SESSION.

Governor Bachelder Desires World's Fair Appropriation.

Concord, N. H., Dec. 3.—Governor Bachelder is considering the advisability of calling a special session of the Legislature next month to act on an appropriation for State representation at the St. Louis World's Fair. The only question is whether sufficient public interest is felt in the matter, and there is evidence pointing in to convince him.

Leading men from all parts of the State are an aid to the special session. Members of the Legislature are willing to give their services free for the session.

The latest plan is to have Vermont and New Hampshire join in a building at the Exposition, and the movement for a special session in Vermont is growing rapidly, and Governor McCracken expects to issue a call within a few days.

CONTRACT LET FOR BUILDING.

Erection of Mysterious Asia Structure Will Begin at Once.

The Asiatic Exposition Company, which has the concession for Mysterious Asia at the World's Fair, met yesterday and elected H. E. Henland president, Gaston Akum, vice president and general manager; P. Sturgeon, secretary, and H. Chouteau Dyer, treasurer.

It was decided to award the contract for the buildings to the Gode Construction Company, the contract price being $12,000. It was also decided that work would commence immediately. The company's location is on the Pike, just west of the Irish Village.

The company has representatives in several Asiatic countries assembling materials and gathering ideas, which will form part of its "show." Promoters of the concession claim for it absolute originality. It is said that it will be a masterpiece of Oriental life, with nothing whatever of an objectionable character. About $100,000 will be spent on the concession.

W. C. T. U. PLEDGES SUPPORT.

Mrs. Lente of Boston Congratulates Fair Management on Moral Tone.

Mrs. Katharine Lente of Boston, Mass., president of the Massachusetts Woman's Christian Temperance Union, has written to President Francis of the World's Fair, stating that she is rejoicing in the assurance that the St. Louis Exposition will be free from many of the objectionable features which have marred former fairs.

She expresses the hope that throughout the Exposition there will be no laxity of vigilance in the efforts to keep out all that is immoral. The World's Fair, she says, should be an object lesson to the world in civic righteousness. Mrs. Lente pledges the support of her organization to make such.

WANTS FINGER IN THE PIE.

Share of Patronage Plums Desired by Kansas World's Fair Commission.

St. Joseph, Mo., Dec. 3.—The Kansas World's Fair Commission met here today, and from 1,000 applications for jobs could give only one, that of custodian of the Kansas building.

Members of the commission are indignant because they say Missouri is hogging everything. They say the Kansas Commission can't even name a policeman with any assurance that he will be put on the pay roll.

Agriculture and Technical Education for Ireland, sailed for New York today on the White Star line steamship Oceanic to make arrangements for an Irish display at the St. Louis Exposition next year.

Mr. Brinkley said that the Irish Board of Agriculture intended to support the St. Louis Exposition as much as possible, and that it would make a greater display than it did at the Chicago World's Fair.

Correspondence Society Formed.

A meeting of the members of the International Society of Correspondence, Concordia, took place in the rooms of the Latin-American Club last night. The several histories, each of which will be limited to 1,000 words, will be compiled by the State Librarian, and printed in an attractive little volume. The State has about seventy-five city libraries and about twenty-five college libraries.

DEPARTMENT HEARS OF.

ANOTHER WEEVIL KILLER.

Insect to Be Imported From South America to Rescue Southern Cotton Planters From the Pest.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Washington, Dec. 3.—Professor Herbert J. Webber, Chief of the Bureau of Plant Industry of the Agricultural Department, has received information from South America of the existence of an insect there that will kill the cotton-boll weevil in wholesale lots, and he has already decided to go there in search of the destroyer.

The Agricultural Department experts have made several promising "discoveries" of the same sort within the last few years, but up to date none of the weevil killers have shown themselves equal to their advance agent's praises. One little bug the department imported at great expenditure of pains and money from Egypt was heralded as the long-sought-after savior of the cotton crop. The way he consumed the weevils in Africa was astonishing. "Who he was placed where he could create havoc among the American weevil hosts, however, he lost all interest in the game and, after sampling a few, made a wry face and quit.

The trouble with most of the insect enemies of the weevil thus far discovered by the department is that they lack the ability of the pest which they are expected to destroy. As the weevil works inside the closed boll, it is impossible to kill it with powders or sprays, and the only way thus far discovered to circumvent the scourge is to plant early cotton that will mature before the weevil multiplies to menacing numbers in the late summer.

PAID $1,300 FOR A PENSION.

Widow of Chicago Police Sergeant Tells of "Graft."

Chicago, Dec. 3.—Mrs. John H. Howard, the widow of a police sergeant, testified today before a committee of Aldermen investigating municipal "graft" that she had paid $1,300 to secure what she is entitled to under the law—a pension of $40 a month, the sole means of support for herself and children.

This money, she testified, was paid direct to John H. Howard, who told her that $500 was to go for himself for legal services, and the balance to the Pension Board. She said that she had paid $1,300 to secure what she is entitled to under the law—a pension of $40 a month, the sole means of support for herself and children.

JOINT PURCHASE OF ALTON BRIDGE.

Interested Lines Will Buy the St. Clair, Madison and St. Louis Belt Railroad.

TO INVESTIGATE FURTHER.

Terminal Association Not a Party to Deal—Plans Considered for Advancing Funds for Exposition Improvements.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New York, Dec. 3.—No purchase of the St. Clair, Madison and St. Louis Belt Railroad, which owns the Alton Bridge across the Mississippi River, will be made by the Terminal Railroad Association of St. Louis.

The bridge will, however, be purchased jointly by several of the railroads that are members of the association.

This arrangement was decided upon at a meeting of the railroads' chief executives in the Pennsylvania Railroad offices in this city today. The action was the outcome of a difference of opinion among the railroads composing the Terminal Association in regard to the advisability of buying the Alton Bridge.

The proposal to purchase the property was first made last spring, and at that time a majority of the roads favored the plan. Opposition, however, developed, and it seemed probable that the whole advantage of the purchase would be lost by only two or three of the fourteen railroads in the association. After a long meeting in this city, it was decided to make further investigation before the purchase should be made.

The Government questioned the legality of the holding of the Merchants' bridge at St. Louis by the association, and further an issue. He arraigned the corporation lobbyists for dictating in State affairs and for the association. After a long meeting in this city, it was decided to make further investigation before the purchase should be made.

Among the men at the meeting, which lasted in day and night, were: L. F. Atwell, president of the B. & O.; Joseph Ramsey, Jr., president of the Wabash; R. F. Tokum, president of the Chicago & North Western; J. E. Ingalls, president of the Big Four; and Samuel Spencer, president of the Southern.

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH.

A Remedy Has Been Discovered and Perfected by Years of Scientific Study Which Will Positively Cure Catarrh of the Stomach, Even in Its Worst Stages.

There is probably no disorder in the list of stomach ailments so prevalent as Catarrh of the Stomach. This disease is often caused by an irrational mode of living; fast eating, resulting in imperfect mastication of the food; overeating the stomach with too large quantities of rich or highly spiced dishes; too cold and strong alcoholic drinks; the abuse of tobacco, especially chewing, all tend to irritate the stomach and to cause catarrhal condition of the digestive organs.

Even people of regular habits may develop gastric catarrh. An unhealthy condition of the mouth, and more so of the teeth, is liable to produce the disease, because the food cannot be chewed thoroughly and becomes sour. As a rule, the disease develops slowly, the appetite becomes variable, a sensation of fullness after meals, palpitation of the heart and shortness of breath is experienced; also, a burning sensation at the top of the stomach, bad taste in the mouth and vomiting or nausea after morning meal. There is considerable headache, a heavy feeling in the limbs, with little inclination for work, and the mental faculties are sluggish and drowsy.

It is quite easy to overcome these disturbances, and there is a remedy that any one can take. This remedy is Eupesia Tablets. We don't care how many other remedies you have tried, nor how obstinate the case may be, or how long standing the disease. Eupesia Tablets are guaranteed. If the remedy was not one of those absolute dependences on the place, we could not make such an offer.

A Severe Case of Ten Years' Standing Cured. I have suffered from indigestion for the past ten years, and in that time tried every remedy known to man. I was taking one bottle of Eupesia Tablets I was immediately cured. When I commenced taking Eupesia Tablets, I lost ten pounds and I now weigh 170 pounds and credit my health to Eupesia Tablets.
